

MUSEO PALEONTOLÓGICO EGIDIO FERUGLIO (MEF)

It is one of the most important paleontology museums in South America and a world reference in research on Patagonian dinosaurs. Its modern exhibition allows visitors to travel through millions of years of natural history through original skeletons, giant dinosaur replicas, audio-visual resources, and interactive experiences for all ages.

During the visit, you can observe unique fossils discovered in Patagonia, learn how scientists worked on their discoveries, and understand what life in the region was like millions of years ago.

The museum also features a small cinema, a themed shop called Dinoshop, and the Café Feruglio, where visitors can relax and enjoy a snack or lunch.
